Stewardship Stewardship of (Spring) Time

This weekend we mark the first day of spring, a time of renewed energy and new beginnings, with longer days and more sunlight. As we delve further into our contemplation of the Stewardship of Time, we recall the words of today's Gospel: "But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God." In your prayerful approach to Stewardship and the time you spend with God, remember that outward expressions of prayer, good works and right living are ways that you convey your devotion in the light of God to praise Him and to inspire others.

From the Pastor's Desk

Anyone interested in reading the 3 page special delivery letter received from Bishop Lennon which was read at mass last weekend, regarding the Clustering results, is welcome to stop at the rectory and pick up a copy.

Thank you,
Fr. Jasany

A Call to Service!

"Blessed is the person who has regard for the lowly and the poor..." (Psalms 41).

Lent gives us pause to reflect on the Mystery of Christ in all aspects. It is a time to strip away excesses, to focus on what is important, and to listen to God's calling in our Life.

Mother Teresa said, "Let us not be satisfied with just giving money. Money is not enough, for money one can get. I would like more people to give their hands to serve and their hearts to love-to recognize the poor in their homes, towns, and countries and to reach out to them in love and compassion, giving where it is most needed, and share the joy of loving with everyone."

Please consider donating a few hours of your time.

*Christ has no body now on earth but yours,
no hands but yours, no feet but yours;
yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion looks out on the world, yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good and yours are the hands with which He is to bless us now.*
